Old Business:

- The committee is still waiting to hear from Kevin Pierre regarding repair of the flag pole and planter across from McDonalds. Qualman will have his crew dismantle the current planter.

Supervisors Report:

- There are 4 teams for the adult co-ed softball league.
- There are 4 teams for the Kewaunee County Babe Ruth Baseball league.
- Sign-up is now going on to begin a grade school co-ed softball league for grade 4-5-6.
- Perry Field baseball diamond upgrade is scheduled to begin in mid-July.
- The leukemia bike-a-thon will be at Heritage Park on July 19th.

New Business:

- Amy Haack discussed what programs will be offered at Perry Park for the children's program starting June 8th. There will be limited activities offered until summer school is over.
- The committee discussed putting more bleachers at Peterson Park. There are several obstacles such as fencing that would need to be higher and the bleachers would be in the way for sledding. The committee decided not to pursue at this time.
- A citizen mentioned the condition of the concession stand at Peterson Park. Qualman will have his crew wash and paint the walls and paint the floors. New ceilings will be put in the restrooms.
- The committee discussed the scoreboard at Perry Field which will occasionally not work. Qualman will research pricing for a new controller and wiring.

Next meeting will be Monday, June 22nd.

Moved by Rodrian second by Schneider to adjourn the meeting. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned at 5:59 PM.
